

Turner, Jacqueline

From: PublicEmail4Me [publicemail4me@comcast.net]
Sent: Sunday, September 14, 2008 6:21 PM
To: IREG-COMMENTS
Subject: re: excessive severance packages for failed executives

I speak for many Americans that feel it is completely wrong to reward these executives for their failure, with tax payer money.

If necessary attorneys should be employed to overturn any contractual obligations in this regard.

This smells like the old boy network trying to take care of their buddies. Should these golden parachutes be approved, those in the treasury dept of the US should be held accountatable!

9/18/2008