
FEDERAL HOUSING FINANCE AGENCY

NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release
February 15, 2011

Contact: Corinne Russell (202) 414-6921
Stefanie Johnson (202) 414-6376

FHFA Posts Discussion Documents on Mortgage Servicing Compensation Initiative

Washington, DC – The Federal Housing Finance Agency on Jan. 18 announced a joint initiative to consider alternatives for a new mortgage servicing compensation structure. As part of that effort, FHFA has established a dedicated web link to post information, including background materials and issues for consideration.

FHFA Joint Servicing Initiative: Background and Issues for Consideration \(2/15/2011\)

FHFA Joint Servicing Initiative Web Page: Joint Mortgage Servicing Compensation Initiative

###

The Federal Housing Finance Agency regulates Fannie Mae, Freddie Mac and the 12 Federal Home Loan Banks. These government-sponsored enterprises provide more than $5.9 trillion in funding for the U.S. mortgage markets and financial institutions.