Comment: If there was ever an opportunity to develop job creation through sustainable industries it is the PACE program. And if there was ever a time more critical than 2012 to create jobs throughout the country it is now. The country's housing stock is aging quickly. And we need to find promising ways to ween ourselves from oil and gas now. And we need to make significant steps to holding our CO2 levels to 350 ppm. When you add a lll of this up the PACE program is our ticket to achieving significant strides in these areas. Let's get on with it. Let's make this happen NOW this year.
