[No. 2001-15]

RIN 3069-AA99

Amendment of Community Investment Cash Advance Programs Regulation

AGENCY: Federal Housing Finance Board.

ACTION: Proposed rule.

SUMMARY: The Federal Housing Finance Board (Finance Board) is proposing to amend its regulation on Community Investment Cash Advance (CICA) Programs (CICA Regulation) to make certain technical revisions clarifying CICA Program requirements and improving the operation of CICA Programs. The proposed rule would clarify that the Federal Home Loan Banks (Banks) may offer grants, in addition to advances, under certain CICA Programs, and add a definition of "median income for the neighborhood" in connection with the funding of manufactured housing park projects and economic development projects located in a neighborhood.

DATES: Comments on this proposed rule must be received in writing on or before August 13, 2001.

ADDRESSES: Send comments to: Elaine L. Baker, Secretary to the Board, Federal Housing Finance Board, 1777 F Street, NW., Washington, DC 20006. Comments will be available for public inspection at this address.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Statutory and Regulatory Background

Section 10(j)(10) of the Federal Home Loan Bank Act (Bank Act) authorizes the Banks to establish CICA Programs to support community investment. See 12 U.S.C. 1430(j)(10). In order to facilitate and encourage targeted community lending under section 10(j)(10), in 1998, the Finance Board adopted a final regulation providing the Banks with parameters for the establishment of CICA Programs. See 63 FR 65536 (Nov. 27, 1998); 12 CFR part 952 (formerly 12 CFR part 970).

In the course of implementing CICA Programs under the new CICA Regulation, the Banks and Finance Board staff have identified several technical issues, the resolution of which would clarify CICA Program requirements and improve the effectiveness of CICA Programs. These issues are discussed in the Analysis of the Proposed Rule section below.

II. Analysis of the Proposed Rule

A. Providing Grants Under Certain CICA Programs—§§ 950.1, 952.2, 952.3, 952.5, 952.7

A number of Banks have asked whether the CICA Regulation does or could authorize the Banks to provide grants, in addition to advances, to members under certain CICA Programs. The current CICA Regulation defines an "RDA program or Rural Development Advance program" and a "UDA program or Urban Development Advance program" as a program offered by a Bank for community lending in rural or urban areas, respectively. See 12 CFR 952.3. Even though these programs are styled as "advance" programs in the CICA Regulation, the definitions do not specify the types of financing, such as advances or grants, that a Bank may offer under such programs nor do they limit financing to advances. Accordingly, the Finance Board has interpreted these definition provisions to mean programs under which a Bank offers advances or grants to members. See Finance Board Regulatory Interpretation 2000-RI-2 (April 10, 2000).

The proposed rule would amend the definitional provisions and terminology in § 950.1 of the Finance Board's Advances Regulation and §§ 952.2, 952.3, 952.5 and 952.7 of the CICA Regulation to incorporate the Finance Board's interpretation, thereby specifying and clarifying the grant authority in the rule.¹ Specifically, references to the authority to provide grants under RDA and UDA Programs would be added, and the word "funding," which incorporates the concept of grants, would be substituted for the word "advance," where applicable. Thus, the "RDA program or Rural Development Advance program" would be renamed the "RDF program or Rural Development Funding program," and the "UDA program or Urban Development Advance program" would be renamed the "UDF program or Urban Development Funding program." The definitions of "RDA or Rural Development Advance" and "UDA or Urban Development Advance" would be deleted as redundant. Certain other technical amendments would be made to provide greater clarity to the language.

Under the current CICA Regulation, members receiving grants from a Bank must use the proceeds of such grants to "provide financing" to targeted beneficiaries, which is defined to include certain types of financing, including making loans to targeted beneficiaries. See 12 CFR 952.3. If a Bank chooses to provide grants under its RDF or UDF Programs, the Bank may establish requirements with which members must comply in order to obtain and use the grants.

B. Definition of "Median Income for the Neighborhood"—§ 952.3

Under the current CICA Regulation, economic development projects and manufactured housing parks are eligible for CICA funding if they are located in areas or neighborhoods with a median income at or below the targeted income level of the specific CICA Program (e.g., 80% for CIP, 100% for UDA Programs, 115% for RDA Programs). See 12 CFR 952.3. Section 952.3 defines "median income for the area" generally as one or more of the following, as determined by the Bank: (1) The median income for the area, as published annually by the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD); (2) the applicable median family income, as determined under 26 U.S.C. 143(f) and published by a state mortgage revenue bond program;

¹ This interpretation and the proposed amendments, however, would not apply to the Banks' Community Investment Programs (CIP), which remain exclusively advance programs.

(3) the median income for the area, as published by the U.S. Department of Agriculture; or (4) the median income for any definable geographic area, as published by a Federal, state or local government entity for purposes of that entity's housing and economic development programs, and approved by the Finance Board, at the request of a Bank. See 12 CFR 952.3. These are the same median income data sources as those adopted by the Finance Board in the revised Affordable Housing Program (AHP) Regulation in 1997. See 12 CFR 951.1 (formerly 12 CFR 960.1).

However, the AHP Regulation does not incorporate the concept of "neighborhood" in its median income standards. A "neighborhood" is defined in the CICA Regulation as a small geographic area, i.e., a census tract, block numbering area, unit of local government with a population of 25,000 or less, rural county, or other geographic location designated in comprehensive plans, ordinances, or other local documents as a neighborhood, village, or similar geographic designation that is within, but smaller than, a unit of general local government. 12 CFR 952.3.

The Finance Board has determined that the median income data provided by the above sources for determining the median income for an area are not sufficient for the Banks to determine the median income for a neighborhood, as defined in the CICA Regulation. The sources provide current median income data on an annual basis for areas, such as counties, Metropolitan Statistical Areas and states, but not for smaller geographical areas defined as "neighborhoods" in the CICA Regulation. HUD does publish annually the 1990 Census information for median income for census tracts, but this data is not updated from the 1990 figures. The Finance Board believes that up-to-date income data will enhance the Banks' capacity to implement effectively the "neighborhood" provisions of the CICA Regulation, an important tool in meeting local economic development needs. Consequently, the proposed rule would add a definition of "median income for the neighborhood" to the CICA Regulation that would enable the Banks to obtain median income data for neighborhoods from: (1) The Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council (FFIEC); or (2) other public or private sources with the approval of the Finance Board. The proposed rule specifies FFIEC because it is a Federal government source that publishes such median income data. The proposed rule does not specify any of the possible private sources, but allows the Banks to obtain Finance Board approval for the use of a source other than FFIEC if one can be identified.

The proposed rule would allow the use of these additional sources of data only for economic development projects and manufactured housing parks located in neighborhoods, as defined in the CICA Regulation, and only when current median income data for the applicable neighborhood is unavailable from the sources prescribed in the definition of "median income for the area" in the CICA Regulation.

C. Technical Clarification of Definition of "Housing Projects"—§ 952.3

Section 952.3 of the current CICA Regulation defines "Housing projects" as projects or activities that involve the purchase, construction or rehabilitation of, or predevelopment financing for, certain types of housing. See 12 CFR 952.3. Section 952.5(c) of the current CICA Regulation states that CICA funding other than AHP funding also may be used to refinance economic development projects and housing projects under certain conditions. See 12 CFR 952.5(c). The proposed rule would add refinancing (subject to the conditions in § 952.5(c)) to the definition of "Housing projects" in § 952.3 to clarify, consistent with § 952.5(c), that housing projects involving refinancing also are eligible projects for CICA funding.

D. Technical Clarification of Definition of "Geographically Defined Beneficiaries"—§ 952.3 (par. (1)(ix))

A "Geographically defined beneficiary" is defined in the current CICA Regulation to include a "project [that] is located in a state declared disaster area, or qualifies for assistance under another Federal or state targeted economic development program, approved by the Finance Board." 12 CFR 952.3 (definition of "Targeted beneficiaries" (par. (1)(ix))). The proposed rule would insert the words "other area that" before the word "qualifies" in this sentence to clarify that, to be a geographically defined beneficiary, it is not the project itself, but rather the area in which the project is located, that must qualify for such targeted economic development assistance.

III. Regulatory Flexibility Act

The proposed rule applies only to the Banks, which do not come within the meaning of "small entities," as defined in the Regulatory Flexibility Act (RFA). See 5 U.S.C. 601(6). Therefore, in accordance with section 605(b) of the RFA, see id. section 605(b), the Finance Board hereby certifies that the proposed rule, if promulgated as a final rule, will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities.
