Sean C. Dent – Senior Deputy General Counsel Office of General Counsel

Sean C. Dent serves as the Senior Deputy General Counsel and Alternate Designated Agency Ethics Official in the Office of General Counsel (OGC) at the Federal Housing Finance Agency (FHFA). As the Senior Deputy General Counsel, he leads the Administrative Law Group and is responsible for coordinating legal advice, training, and representation on matters including: ethics and compliance, employment law, contracting, and mortgage fraud.

Dent joined FHFA in 2010 and most recently served as Deputy General Counsel. Prior to joining FHFA, he served as the Deputy Assistant General Counsel for Ethics at the U.S. Department of Education and completed a detail assignment with the White House Counsel's Office. During his detail to the White House, he provided counsel to White House employees and Presidential nominees on ethics matters. He is a former law clerk to the Honorable Inez Smith Reid of the District of Columbia Court of Appeals (retired) and served two 3-year terms as an appointed member of the District of Columbia Court of Appeals Committee on Admissions.

Dent is a graduate of Allegheny College and the Catholic University of America, Columbus School of Law. He is also a Certified Compliance & Ethics Professional. He is happily married to his law-school sweetheart, Alane, and is the proud father of two children, Aidan and Lauren.
