

Federal Housing Finance Agency

Anju Vajja – Senior Associate Director Division of Research and Statistics

Anju Vajja is the Senior Associate Director for Policy Research in the Division of Research and Statistics (DRS) at the Federal Housing Finance Agency (FHFA). As the Senior Associate Director, Vajja leads a team of economists and analysts that focus on research affecting housing finance and financial markets, analysis supporting pricing and servicing decisions, and analysis evaluating policy implications of proposed legislations and programs.

Prior to FHFA, she served over 10 years in Federal Home Loan Bank supervision as an expert in credit risk modeling. She also worked for about 10 years at the World Bank on community development program evaluations and research. She holds a Ph.D. in Economics from Georgetown University, a M.A. in Economics from the Delhi School of Economics in India, and Financial Risk Manager and Professional Risk Manager certifications.