U.S. House Prices Rise 6.6 Percent over the Last Year; Up 1.1 Percent from the Fourth Quarter of 2023

Washington, D.C. – U.S. house prices rose 6.6 percent between the first quarter of 2023 and the first quarter of 2024, according to the Federal Housing Finance Agency (FHFA) House Price Index (FHFA HPI®). House prices were up 1.1 percent compared to the fourth quarter of 2023. FHFA's seasonally adjusted monthly index for March was up 0.1 percent from February.

"U.S. house prices continued to grow at a steady pace in the first quarter," said Dr. Anju Vajja, Deputy Director for FHFA's Division of Research and Statistics. "Over the last six consecutive quarters, the low inventory of homes for sale continued to contribute to house price appreciation despite mortgage rates that hovered around 7 percent."

Significant Findings

- Nationally, the U.S. housing market has experienced positive annual appreciation each quarter since the start of 2012.
- House prices rose in 50 states between the first quarter of 2023 and the first quarter of 2024. The five states with the highest annual appreciation were 1) Vermont, 12.8 percent; 2) New Jersey, 11.6 percent; 3) New York, 10.9 percent; 4) Delaware, 10.7 percent; and 5) Wisconsin, 9.9 percent. District of Columbia had a decline of -1.5 percent.
- House prices rose in 97 of the top 100 largest metropolitan areas over the last four quarters. The annual price increase was the greatest in Allentown-Bethlehem-Easton, PA-NJ at 16.0 percent. The metropolitan area that experienced the most significant price decline was Urban Honolulu, HI at -3.2 percent.
- All nine census divisions had positive house price changes year-over-year. The Middle Atlantic division recorded the strongest appreciation, posting a 9.9 percent increase from the first quarter of 2023 to the first quarter of 2024. The West South Central division recorded the smallest four-quarter appreciation, at 3.7 percent.
- Trends in the Top 100 Metropolitan Statistical Areas are available in our interactive dashboard: https://www.fhfa.gov/DataTools/Tools/Pages/FHFA-HPI-Top-100-Metro-Area-Rankings.aspx. The first tab displays rankings, and the second tab offers charts.

The FHFA HPI is a comprehensive collection of publicly available house price indexes that measure changes in single-family home values based on data that extend back to the mid-1970s from all 50 states and over 400 American cities. It incorporates tens of millions of home sales and offers insights about house price fluctuations at the national, census division, state, metro area, county, ZIP code, and census tract levels. FHFA uses a fully transparent methodology based upon a weighted, repeat-sales statistical technique to analyze house price transaction data.

FHFA releases HPI data and reports quarterly and monthly. The flagship FHFA HPI uses seasonally adjusted, purchase-only data from Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac. Additional indexes use other data including refinances, Federal Housing Administration mortgages, and real property records. All the indexes, including their historic values, and information about future HPI release dates, are available on FHFA's website: https://www.fhfa.gov/HPI.

Tables and graphs showing home price statistics for metropolitan areas, states, census divisions, and the United States are included on the following pages.

Notes

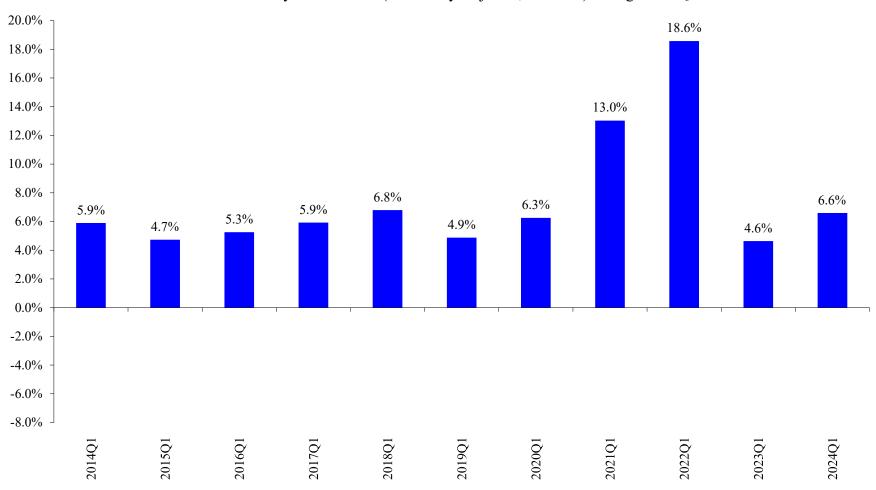

- FHFA will release the next monthly HPI report (including data through April 2024) on June 25, 2024 and the next quarterly report (including data for the second quarter of 2024 and monthly data for June 2024) on August 27, 2024.
- With this release, FHFA began using updated county recorder data from a licensed data vendor for estimation of the expanded-data index. FHFA will publish a technical note with more information in the next monthly report.
- FHFA posts release dates for the remainder of 2024 at https://www.fhfa.gov/DataTools/Downloads/Pages/House-Price-Index.aspx#ReleaseDates.
- Follow @FHFA on X, LinkedIn, Facebook, and YouTube for more HPI news.

The Federal Housing Finance Agency regulates Fannie Mae, Freddie Mac, and the 11 Federal Home Loan Banks. These government-sponsored enterprises provide more than $8.4 trillion in funding for the U.S. mortgage markets and financial institutions.

Overview of FHFA HPI

The FHFA House Price Index® (FHFA HPI®) is a broad economic measure of the movement of single-family house prices in the United States. While FHFA produces the HPI by statutory mandate (12 U.S.C. 4542), it began in 1995 with predecessor agency, the Office of Federal Housing Enterprise Oversight. The initial reports only contained information about regional and national house price movements. But sample coverage has expanded with better access to new data sources and technological improvements for processing such information. Today, indexes cover all 50 states and over 400 American cities with information extending back to the mid-1970s.

FHFA constructs several indexes for different market geographies and periods. The entire suite is often referenced as the "FHFA HPI" to reflect that we create all indexes in the same technical manner. The flagship FHFA HPI is the Purchase-Only Index, which uses seasonally adjusted, purchase-only data. This index is the most common choice for press releases, news stories, and social media. FHFA created additional indexes to address questions about house price changes in other market segments such as refinances, Federal Housing Administration (FHA) mortgages, or the entire single-family property market. Data constraints preclude the production of some kinds of indexes in certain geographic areas, but multiple index types (flavors) are generally available. Quarterly reports usually contain index flavors such as:

- "Purchase-Only" HPI: Tracks changes in transaction prices for conforming, conventional mortgages that are purchased or securitized
- "All-Transactions" HPI: Adds appraisal values from refinance mortgages to the Purchase-Only HPI data sample
- "Expanded-Data" HPI: Adds sales price information sourced from county recorder offices and FHA-backed mortgages to the Purchase-Only HPI data sample. We use this index to adjust the conforming loan limits, which establishes the dollar amount of loans that Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac can acquire.
- "Distress-Free" HPI: Removes sales of bank-owned properties and short sales from the Purchase-Only dataset
- "Annual" HPI. Uses the All-Transactions data but constructs indexes on a yearly basis to provide data for very small geographic areas like counties, ZIP codes, and census tracts

The summary table below details the frequency and geography of the available indexes.

| | National | Census Division | States | MSAs or Cities | ZIP3, Non-metro | ZIP Codes | Counties | Census Tracts |

FHFA builds the HPI suite on tens of millions of home sales and offers insights about house price fluctuations at various geographic levels. For more information, see the HPI Frequently Asked Questions.
