

Treasury and Federal Reserve Purchase Programs for GSE and Mortgage-Related Securities

Data as of August 8, 2014

The tables that follow provide data on activities by the Department of the Treasury and the Federal Reserve System to support mortgage markets through purchases of securities issued by the housing government-sponsored enterprises (GSEs; Fannie Mae, Freddie Mac and the Federal Home Loan Banks) and by Ginnie Mae, a federal agency that guarantees securities backed by mortgages insured or guaranteed by the Federal Housing Administration, the Department of Veterans Affairs, and other federal agencies. Those activities include draws by Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac on commitments made by the Treasury in the senior preferred stock purchase agreements (table 1); dividends paid by Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac to Treasury on the senior preferred stock (table 2); and Treasury purchases of mortgage-backed securities (MBS) guaranteed by Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac (table 3).

The Federal Reserve has conducted three rounds of asset purchases that included purchases of securities of the housing GSEs. The Federal Reserve announced the first round in November 2008. That round resulted in the purchase of $1.250 trillion of MBS guaranteed by Fannie Mae, Freddie Mac, and Ginnie Mae (table 4a) and $172 billion of debt securities issued by the housing GSEs (table 5) between January 2009 and March 2010. In September 2011, the Federal Reserve announced the second round of purchases through the reinvesting of principal payments from its holdings of GSE and Ginnie Mae securities in GSE and Ginnie Mae MBS. In September 2012, the Federal Reserve announced that it would purchase additional agency MBS at a pace of $40 billion per month and continued to reinvest principal payments in GSE and Ginnie MBS (table 4b).

¹ Freddie Mac's draws have been based on reported GAAP stockholders' equity, while Fannie Mae's draws have been based on GAAP net worth. Both GAAP stockholders' equity and GAAP net worth are measures of the difference between an Enterprise's assets and liabilities. Both measures include realized and unrealized losses as of the reporting date. Losses ultimately realized in the future may differ from unrealized losses as of the reporting date.

² Excludes $1 billion in liquidation preference on the senior preferred stock position obtained by Treasury from each Enterprise upon initiation of the Senior Preferred Stock Purchase Agreement. The initial $1 billion is not a draw on the Treasury's commitment under the agreement.

² Dividends accrued may not add up to cumulative dividends due to rounding.

¹ Net transactions may include dollar roll purchases net of associated sales.² On September 21, 2011, the Federal Open Market Committee (FOMC) directed the Open Market Trading Desk (the Desk) to reinvest principal payments from its holdings of agency debt and agency mortgage-backed securities (MBS) in agency MBS.³ On September 13, 2012, the FOMC directed the Desk to begin purchasing additional agency MBS at a pace of $40 billion per month. On December 8, 2013, the FOMC directed the Desk to begin tapering those additional purchases. The FOMC also directed the Desk to reinvest principal payments from the Federal Reserve's holdings of agency debt and agency MBS in agency MBS.
