FINAL SUSPENSION ORDER

The Federal Housing Finance Agency (“FHFA”), as safety and soundness regulator of the Federal National Mortgage Association (“Fannie Mae”), Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation (“Freddie Mac”), and the eleven Federal Home Loan Banks (collectively, the “regulated entities”), is issuing this Final Order pursuant to the following legal authorities:

1. Section 1313 of the Federal Housing Enterprises Financial Safety and Soundness Act of 1992, as amended by the Housing and Economic Recovery Act of 2008, Pub. L. No. 110-289, 122 Stat. 2654 (codified as 12 U.S.C. § 4511 et seq.), (“Safety and Soundness Act”), authorizes FHFA to exercise such incidental powers as may be necessary in the supervision and regulation of the regulated entities. See 12 U.S.C. § 4513(a)(2).
2. Section 1313B of the Safety and Soundness Act authorizes FHFA to establish standards for the regulated entities regarding prudential management of risks. FHFA is authorized to issue orders requiring the regulated entities to take any action that will best carry out the purposes of that section. See 12 U.S.C. § 4513b(b)(2)(B)(iii).
3. Section 1319G of the Safety and Soundness Act authorizes FHFA to issue any orders necessary to ensure that the purposes of the Safety and Soundness Act are accomplished. See 12 U.S.C. § 4526(a).
4. 12 CFR § 1227.6, FHFA’s regulation governing the issuance of a final suspension order and the factors that may be considered by the suspending official.

Consistent with these authorities, FHFA has determined that any business relationship between Garrett Stevenson (“Stevenson”) and any of the regulated entities would present excessive risk to their safety and soundness.

This determination is based on the following findings:

1. Stevenson was an Ohio resident, and owned and operated Home Rescue Team, LLC, a/k/a HRT Consulting, as well as Equity Max Network, LLC. Stevenson along with others jointly produced and disseminated marketing materials in the name of entities Phoenix Consulting, HRT Consulting, Home Rescue Team, and Equity Max Network to homeowners in the Southern District of Ohio and elsewhere.
2. From in or about January 2013 through at least 2018, Stevenson and others engaged in a nationwide scheme to defraud distressed homeowners by falsely representing that they could help the homeowners save their homes. In truth, Stevenson and his co-conspirators took advantage of the homeowners' and used monies received from the homeowners to pay others and personally enrich themselves.

3. Based on this misconduct and pursuant to a guilty plea, judgment was entered against Stevenson on December 5, 2023. Stevenson was convicted by the United States District Court for the Southern District of Ohio of conspiracy to commit mail and wire fraud. Stevenson was sentenced to thirty-six (36) months imprisonment with credit for time served, followed by thirty-six (36) months of supervised release. In addition, Stevenson was ordered to pay $101,318 in restitution.
4. The conduct underlying the conviction described above occurred in connection with a mortgage business.
5. The above-referenced conviction constitutes covered misconduct, as that term is defined at 12 CFR 1227.2, that is of a type that would be likely to cause significant financial or reputational harm to a regulated entity or otherwise threaten the safe and sound operation of a regulated entity.

With this Final Order, FHFA is directing each regulated entity to cease or refrain from engaging in any business relationship with Garrett Stevenson indefinitely, beginning on July 8, 2026.

The Final Order's requirement for the regulated entities to indefinitely cease any business relationship with Garrett Stevenson does not apply to the existing or future purchase, sale, modification, foreclosure alternative transaction, or other foreclosure-related transaction of a residential mortgage loan owned by a regulated entity if Garrett Stevenson is the borrower of such residential mortgage loan and the transaction is for the borrower's own personal or household residence.

This Final Order is a final action of the Federal Housing Finance Agency.
