FINAL SUSPENSION ORDER

The Federal Housing Finance Agency (“FHFA”), as safety and soundness regulator of the Federal National Mortgage Association (“Fannie Mae”), Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation (“Freddie Mac”), and the eleven Federal Home Loan Banks (collectively, the “regulated entities”), is issuing this Final Order pursuant to the following legal authorities:

1. Section 1313 of the Federal Housing Enterprises Financial Safety and Soundness Act of 1992, as amended by the Housing and Economic Recovery Act of 2008, Pub. L. No. 110-289, 122 Stat. 2654 (codified as 12 U.S.C. § 4511 et seq.), (“Safety and Soundness Act”), authorizes FHFA to exercise such incidental powers as may be necessary in the supervision and regulation of the regulated entities. See 12 U.S.C. § 4513(a)(2).
2. Section 1313B of the Safety and Soundness Act authorizes FHFA to establish standards for the regulated entities regarding prudential management of risks. FHFA is authorized to issue orders requiring the regulated entities to take any action that will best carry out the purposes of that section. See 12 U.S.C. § 4513b(b)(2)(B)(iii).
3. Section 1319G of the Safety and Soundness Act authorizes FHFA to issue any orders necessary to ensure that the purposes of the Safety and Soundness Act are accomplished. See 12 U.S.C. § 4526(a).
4. 12 CFR § 1227.6, FHFA’s regulation governing the issuance of a final suspension order and the factors that may be considered by the suspending official.

Consistent with these authorities, FHFA has determined that any business relationship between Stacy Kay Slaughter (“Slaughter”) and any of the regulated entities would present excessive risk to their safety and soundness.

This determination is based on the following findings:

1. Slaughter, an Ohio resident, first served as the Regional Sales Director of MVP Home Solutions, LLC (“MVP”) and later as a Manager at Bolden Pinnacle Corp. (“Bolden”), and in such capacities participated in the management and operations of both entities.
2. From in or about January 2013 through at least 2018, Slaughter and others engaged in a nationwide scheme to defraud distressed homeowners by falsely representing that they could help the homeowners save their homes. In truth, Slaughter and her co-conspirators took advantage of the homeowners’ and used monies received from the homeowners to pay others and personally enrich themselves. According to the judgment entered against Slaughter, her offense ended in 2014.

3. The purposes and object of the conspiracy was for Slaughter and others to obtain money and property from distressed consumers by means of materially false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, promises, and omissions, and for the purposes of executing and attempting to execute such scheme and artifice to defraud, filed or caused to be filed in furtherance of the scheme fraudulent voluntary bankruptcy petitions and fraudulent schedules in relation to such petitions.
4. Based on this misconduct and pursuant to a guilty plea, judgment was entered against Slaughter on September 8, 2025. Slaughter was convicted by the United States District Court for the Southern District of Ohio of bankruptcy fraud. Slaughter was sentenced to five (5) years of probation. Restitution was ordered in the amount of $160,558.
5. The conduct underlying the conviction described above occurred in connection with a mortgage business.
6. The above-referenced conviction constitutes covered misconduct, as that term is defined at 12 CFR § 1227.2, that is of a type that would be likely to cause significant financial or reputational harm to a regulated entity or otherwise threaten the safe and sound operation of a regulated entity.

With this Final Order, FHFA is directing each regulated entity to cease or refrain from engaging in any business relationship with Stacy Kay Slaughter indefinitely, beginning on July 8, 2026.

The Final Order's requirement for the regulated entities to indefinitely cease any business relationship with Stacy Kay Slaughter does not apply to the existing or future purchase, sale, modification, foreclosure alternative transaction, or other foreclosure-related transaction of a residential mortgage loan owned by a regulated entity if Stacy Kay Slaughter is the borrower of such residential mortgage loan and the transaction is for the borrower's own personal or household residence.

This Final Order is a final action of the Federal Housing Finance Agency.
