

Federal Housing Finance Agency

Jason Cave – Deputy Director Division of Conservatorship and Readiness (DCOR)

Jason Cave joined FHFA in November 2020. He is responsible for leading, coordinating and clarifying, as needed, FHFA and Enterprise (Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac) activities related to the conservatorship and FHFA's Strategic Plan for the Enterprise Conservatorship.

Prior to joining FHFA, Cave served in various roles at the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) over the past 27 years, including as Senior Advisor to the Chairman and most recently as Senior Advisor to the Director of the Division of Complex Institution Supervision and Resolution. Cave helped establish the precursor to that Division, the Office of Complex Financial Institutions, which was created to administer new systemic resolution authorities including living wills.

Cave has been an active participant in international policy and supervision initiatives and has been member of the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision, where he negotiated the post-crisis reform package known as Basel III. Cave also served as Chairman of the Basel Committee's Task Force on Simplicity and Comparability, which introduced key safeguards into international capital standards.