FHLBank System at 100 Roundtable: Supporting Native American Communities

December 1, 2022 | 1:00 – 4:00 p.m.

1. What role does the FHLBank System play in supporting affordable, equitable, sustainable, and resilient housing for Native Americans?
2. What role does the FHLBank System play in supporting community development and economic development for Native Americans?
3. What factors prevent the FHLBanks from playing a larger role?
4. Are any of those factors specific to working on tribal land? If so, how can they be mitigated to better support Native American communities?
5. Are there particular needs that the FHLBanks may be uniquely positioned to address?
6. What should the FHLBanks' mission-related programs look like? If we could start from a blank slate, what would be key features?

To submit in advance:

- What is the single most important unmet need that a federal housing or community development program could help to address?
- If you could design a federal housing or community development program from scratch, what would be the key features?
- Other bullet points outlining the points you would like to discuss
